

In short, this year promises to be a very challenging one for the FAA, and it is no time for the agency to be without a full-time administrator appointed by the President and approved by the Senate. I have previously expressed my view that the next administrator should have strong aviation credentials, and I am enclosing an earlier letter to you which summarizes those views. I urge you to do whatever you can to ensure that a new FAA administrator is nominated quickly—before the Christmas holiday if possible.

Sincerely,

FRANK R. WOLF,
Chairman, Subcommittee on
Transportation and Related Agencies.
